

Performance Studies

The Graduate Group in Performance Studies at UC Berkeley provides an interdisciplinary and individually crafted curriculum directed at advanced studies in the literatures, performances, cultural contexts, and theories of performance throughout the world. Based in the Department of Theater, Dance, and Performance Studies, the PhD program in Performance Studies takes advantage of Berkeley's distinguished history in the field of drama and theater studies and opens out to a wider interrogation of the disciplines and methodologies of performance studies. The program is administered by the Graduate Group in Performance Studies, comprised of faculty from a wide range of related departments. Students in the Performance Studies PhD program conduct research in a diverse array of interdisciplinary methodologies, on projects spanning the fields of theater, dance, and performance studies.

Admission to the University

Applying for Graduate Admission

Thank you for considering UC Berkeley for graduate study! UC Berkeley offers more than 120 graduate programs representing the breadth and depth of interdisciplinary scholarship. A complete list of graduate academic departments, degrees offered, and application deadlines can be found on the Graduate Division website (<http://grad.berkeley.edu/programs/list/>).

Prospective students must submit an online application to be considered for admission, in addition to any supplemental materials specific to the program for which they are applying. The online application can be found on the Graduate Division website (<http://grad.berkeley.edu/admissions/>).

Admission Requirements

The minimum graduate admission requirements are:

1. A bachelor's degree or recognized equivalent from an accredited institution;
2. A satisfactory scholastic average, usually a minimum grade-point average (GPA) of 3.0 (B) on a 4.0 scale; and
3. Enough undergraduate training to do graduate work in your chosen field.

For a list of requirements to complete your graduate application, please see the Graduate Division's Admissions Requirements page (<https://grad.berkeley.edu/admissions/steps-to-apply/requirements/>). It is also important to check with the program or department of interest, as they may have additional requirements specific to their program of study and degree. Department contact information can be found here (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/graduate/degree-programs/>).

Where to apply?

Visit the Berkeley Graduate Division application page (<http://grad.berkeley.edu/admissions/apply/>).

Admission to the Program

The graduate group admissions committee seeks applicants with qualities that will enable them to succeed in an intensive interdisciplinary program: creativity and analytical skills, practical experience, individual initiative, and intellectual rigor. Priority will be given to applicants whose research interests dovetail well with current faculty resources. Candidates holding a bachelor's or master's degree in theater, literature, performance studies, dance, or any appropriate humanities-related field are eligible to apply for admissions. The graduate group is particularly interested in applicants who have already formulated a specific focus of interest, including professional theater or dance practitioners who demonstrate a capacity for and training in advanced scholarly study. Please see the graduate group webpage for additional admission information (<http://tdps.berkeley.edu/programs-courses/graduate-program/admission-information/>).

As part of the application, you will be asked to submit the following:

1. All college transcripts
2. Three letters of recommendation
3. TOEFL scores (if applicable)
4. Resume/CV
5. Personal Statement
6. Statement of Purpose
7. Critical Writing Sample (15-20 pages)

Curriculum

The following is a breakdown of requirements to be fulfilled during the student's first five semesters of study. All courses must be taken for letter grades. For additional information, please see the graduate group Program of Study (<http://tdps.berkeley.edu/programs-courses/graduate-program/program-of-study/>).

Core Colloquia

THEATER 200A	Introductory Colloquium on Interdisciplinary Research in Performance	2
THEATER 200B	Research Colloquium	2
THEATER 200B	Research Colloquium	2

Core Seminars

THEATER 201A	Performance Theory: Key Topics	4
THEATER 201B	Performance Theory: Enduring Debates	4
THEATER 202	Methodologies in Performance Studies	4
THEATER 203	Performance Practicum: Bodies, Space, and Time	4

Electives

Complete eight additional 4-unit graduate seminars, including at least two different Theater 266 seminars. See below for details.

Pedagogy Courses

THEATER 375	Teaching Reading and Composition in Performance Studies	2
-------------	---	---

See below for details.

Performance Studies Electives

Two different THEATER 266 seminars (4 units each) must be taken in the first five semesters in the program.

Complete at least two graduate seminars offered by the Department of Theater, Dance, and Performance Studies. Only THEATER 266, not Theater 299, may fulfill this requirement and all electives must be discussed with the Head Graduate Advisor and approved before the start of each semester.

Additional Electives

Six additional graduate seminars (4 units each) offered by any department must be taken in the first five semesters in the program.

Complete at least 6 additional graduate seminars (200 level) offered by any department at UC Berkeley, may include additional THEATER 266 seminars. All electives must be discussed with the Head Graduate Advisor and approved before the start of each semester.

Pedagogy Courses

To prepare for appointment as a graduate student instructor (GSI), students are required to take THEATER 375 in the fall semester of the first year (this course is not offered in the spring). Also, GSIs for TDPS enroll each semester in THEATER 300 with their teaching supervisor.

QE

Students sit their qualifying exams in their sixth semester before proceeding to the dissertation.

Time in Candidacy

For additional information, please see the graduate group Program of Study (<http://tdps.berkeley.edu/programs-courses/graduate-program/program-of-study/>)

Prospectus

During the dissertation phase, students are expected to submit a copy of their dissertation prospectus (by the end of the seventh semester).

Fifth Year Presentation

Students give a public presentation of their research in the ninth semester.

Dissertation

Students are expected to complete their dissertations within the normative time frame (i.e., 12 semesters from the start of the program).

THEATER 375 Teaching Reading and Composition in Performance Studies 2 Units

Terms offered: Fall 2024, Fall 2023, Fall 2022

This course will explore the theory and practice of teaching undergraduate-level reading and writing skills, specifically within the field of performance studies. This hands-on practicum will cover topics such as course design, lesson planning, teaching critical reading skills, building writing assignments, teaching writing skills, giving feedback, grading, and time management. We will also explore methodologies specific to teaching in performance studies: performance analysis, movement analysis, ethnography, and embodied research. Finally, we will devote attention to how we build equitable, student-centered classrooms attentive to difference and encouraging of support across diverse populations.

Teaching Reading and Composition in Performance Studies: Read More [+]

Objectives & Outcomes

Course Objectives: 1.

Ask students to develop a series of scaffolded reading and writing assignments, discussing the skills these assignments each address and how the assignments help undergraduate students to build up to a written college essay

2.

Ask students to design in-class exercises and identify the skills they address

3.

Explore performance studies methodologies and how to teach them to undergraduates

4.

Explore feedback and assessment strategies

5.

Share pedagogical techniques collectively

6.

Explore strategies for creating inclusive classrooms

7.

Write a syllabus

8.

Observe current GSIs in the classroom

Student Learning Outcomes: 1.

Teach undergraduate-level reading skills

10.

Teach students how to succeed in the university—i.e. deadlines, office hours, where to go for help

2.

Teach undergraduate-level writing skills

3.

Assess undergraduate-level reading and writing

4.

Incorporate performance studies methodologies into a reading and composition course

5.

Design a reading and composition course

6.

Plan and manage classroom work

7.

Give group and individual feedback

8.

Manage time and workload

9.

Develop methods for creating an inclusive classroom

Hours & Format

Fall and/or spring: 15 weeks - 2 hours of lecture per week
