GMS C215 Global Urban Inequalities 3 Units
Terms offered: Fall 2021
This course is animated by the question: what is global and urban about inequalities? It has two aims. First, it focuses on the historical-geographies of globalization and cities, and unpacks how cities are embedded within wider networks of capitalism. Second, it explores the many meanings and political projects around decolonizing the city, and looks at unlearning, anti-imperialism, abolition, epistemic justice as concrete actions to combat global urban inequalities.
