Performance Studies

Overview

The Graduate Group in Performance Studies at UC Berkeley provides an interdisciplinary and individually crafted curriculum directed at advanced studies in the literatures, performances, cultural contexts, and theories of performance throughout the world. Based in the Department of Theater, Dance, and Performance Studies, the PhD program in Performance Studies takes advantage of Berkeley's distinguished history in the field of drama and theater studies and opens out to a wider interrogation of the disciplines and methodologies of performance studies. The program is administered by the Graduate Group in Performance Studies, composed of faculty from a wide range of related departments. Students in the Performance Studies PhD program conduct research in a diverse array of interdisciplinary methodologies, on projects spanning the fields of theater, dance, and performance studies.

Undergraduate Program

The group does not offer an undergraduate program in Performance Studies. However, the Department of Theater, Dance, and Performance Studies offers a major and minor in Dance and Performance Studies and Theater and Performance Studies.

THEATER 375 Teaching Reading and Composition in Performance Studies 2 Units
Terms offered: Fall 2021, Fall 2020
This course will explore the theory and practice of teaching undergraduate-level reading and writing skills, specifically within the field of performance studies. This hands-on practicum will cover topics such as course design, lesson planning, teaching critical reading skills, building writing assignments, teaching writing skills, giving feedback, grading, and time management. We will also explore methodologies specific to teaching in performance studies: performance analysis, movement analysis, ethnography, and embodied research. Finally, we will devote attention to how we build equitable, student-centered classrooms attentive to difference and encouraging of support across diverse populations.
Teaching Reading and Composition in Performance Studies: Read More [+]
Objectives & Outcomes
Course Objectives:
1. Ask students to develop a series of scaffolded reading and writing assignments, discussing the skills these assignments each address and how the assignments help undergraduate students to build up to a written college essay
2. Ask students to design in-class exercises and identify the skills they address
3. Explore performance studies methodologies and how to teach them to undergraduates
4. Explore feedback and assessment strategies
5. Share pedagogical techniques collectively
6. Explore strategies for creating inclusive classrooms
7. Write a syllabus
8. Observe current GSIs in the classroom
Student Learning Outcomes:
1. Teach undergraduate-level reading skills
2. Teach students how to succeed in the university—i.e. deadlines, office hours, where to go for help
3. Teach undergraduate-level writing skills
4. Assess undergraduate-level reading and writing
5. Incorporate performance studies methodologies into a reading and composition course
6. Design a reading and composition course
7. Plan and manage classroom work
8. Give group and individual feedback
9. Manage time and workload
10. Develop methods for creating an inclusive classroom
