Arabic

Minor

The Arabic minor introduces students to the language, peoples, cultures, history of the Arabic speaking world. The minor develops a student's command of reading, writing, speaking, and comprehension in the language and may complement the student's intended major study.

Students wishing to major in the study of Arabic should see the major requirements in Near Eastern Languages and Literatures (http://guide.berkeley.edu/undergraduate/degree-programs/near-eastern-languages-literatures).

Students minoring in Arabic should fulfill the lower division prerequisite requirements. Students may also take a language proficiency exam to waive the elementary and intermediate language course requirements. Please meet with the undergraduate major advisor to arrange a language proficiency exam and to receive course approvals to fulfill the minor requirements.

Declaring the Minor

Students may petition to add the Arabic minor as soon as they begin their study of Arabic. Please submit the Petition to Complete the Minor (https://ls.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/advcompletionoflnsminor.pdf) form to the undergraduate student advisor.

The minor program requires five upper-division courses in Arabic literature and culture. Students may overlap one course from their major in order to complete the Arabic minor requirements.

General Guidelines

1. All courses taken to fulfill minor requirements must be taken for a letter grade and be at least 3 units.
2. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 must be maintained in upper division courses used to fulfill the minor requirements.
3. With the prior consent of the major adviser, students may take courses across various disciplines to fulfill the minor cultural and historical requirements.
