City Planning

Minor
The City Planning minor provides students with the knowledge of how cities function, how urban processes might be researched, and how urban environments can be transformed through planning, policy, design, and social action. While the minor cannot convey the full scope of city planning, various combinations of courses in the minor program can, we feel, augment a major program with a particular slant or emphasis on planning issues or processes.

Declaring the Minor
A letter grade of C- or higher is required in two of the lower division requirements listed below to declare the minor. To declare, students must submit the CED Request to Add Minor Form (https://ced.berkeley.edu/students/undergraduate-advising/forms-documents), available on the CED website. When completing the final requirements for the minor, submit the CED Minor Completion Form (https://ced.berkeley.edu/students/undergraduate-advising/forms-documents).

Other Major and Minor Programs Offered by the Department of City and Regional Planning
Geospatial Information Science and Technology (http://guide.berkeley.edu/undergraduate/degree-programs/geospatial-information-science-technology) (Minor only; offered in conjunction with the College of Natural Resources)
Urban Studies (http://guide.berkeley.edu/undergraduate/degree-programs/urban-studies) (Major only)

Students who have a strong interest in an area of study outside their major often decide to complete a minor program. When completing their final requirements for the minor, students must submit the CED Minor Completion Form (https://ced.berkeley.edu/students/undergraduate-advising/forms-documents), available on the CED website.

General Guidelines
1. A letter grade of C- or higher is required in two of the lower division requirements listed below to declare the minor. To declare, submit the CED Request to Add Minor Form (https://ced.berkeley.edu/students/undergraduate-advising/forms-documents), available on the CED website.
2. Each course used to fulfill minor requirements must be completed with a letter grade of C- or above.
3. Students must earn a 2.0 GPA in the upper division requirements for the minor.
4. Any course used in fulfillment of minor requirements may also be used to fulfill major and upper division CED non-major requirements.
5. Courses used to fulfill a breadth requirement may also be used to satisfy minor requirements.
6. Students may apply the non-CED version of a CED cross-listed course towards the minor.
7. Students may use up to two courses taken abroad to fulfill upper division minor requirements, with faculty approval of the individual courses.

Prerequisites
Select two courses from the following, from different subject areas:

Economics
- ECON 1 Introduction to Economics
- ECON 2 Introduction to Economics--Lecture Format
- ENVECON 1/C/ECON C3 Introduction to Environmental Economics and Policy

Environmental Design
- ENV DES 1 Introduction to Environmental Design

Statistics
- CIV ENG 93 Engineering Data Analysis
- STAT 2 Introduction to Statistics
- STAT C8 Foundations of Data Science
- STAT 20 Introduction to Probability and Statistics
- STAT 21 Introductory Probability and Statistics for Business
- STAT 131A Introduction to Probability and Statistics for Life Scientists

If economics is taken at another college (and transferred in), it should be either microeconomics or micro and macro together.

Upper Division
Five courses

Select four additional upper division courses
At least three courses must be from List 1 below (Planning courses), and not more than one course must from List 2 below (Planning-related courses); all four courses may be from List 1.

List 1: Planning Courses

CY PLAN 101 Introduction to Urban Data Analytics 4 Units

Terms offered: Spring 2017

This course (1) provides a basic intro to census and economic data collection, processing, and analysis; (2) surveys forecasting and modeling techniques in planning; (3) demonstrates the uses of real-time urban data and analytics; and (4) provides a socio-economic-political context for the smart cities movement, focusing on data ethics and governance.

Objectives Outcomes

Student Learning Outcomes: This course will teach students systematic approaches to collecting, analyzing, modeling, and interpreting quantitative data used to inform robust research, and, ultimately, urban planning practice and policymaking. This contributes to the urban studies major's objective of introducing students to “conceptual tools, analytical methods, and theoretical frameworks to understand urban environments, such as economic analysis, social science theory, and visualization technologies,” with the objective of training undergraduates for a future career or further graduate study in the field of urban studies and planning.

CY PLAN 120 Community Planning and Public Policy for Disability 3 Units
Terms offered: Spring 2017, Spring 2016, Spring 2015
This course reviews what society and local communities can do in terms of policies, programs, and local planning to address the needs of citizens with disabilities. Attention will be given to the economics of disability, to the politics of producing change, and to transportation, housing, public facilities, independent living, employment, and income policies. Options will be assessed from the varying perspectives of those with disabilities and the broader society.

Urban and Sub-national Politics in Developing Countries 4 Units
Terms offered: Fall 2017, Fall 2016, Fall 2015
Over half of the world's population is now urban. As urban populations swell, metropolitan areas in both the developed and the developing world struggle to provide basic services and address the negative externalities associated with rapid growth. Sanitation, transportation, pollution, energy services, and public safety typically fall to sub-national governments. Yet local sub-national institutions face difficulties as they tackle these challenges because development tends to spill over political boundaries and resources are limited. Such difficulties are particularly acute in the developing world due to tighter resource constraints, weak institutions, and the comparative severity of the underlying problems. Moreover, democratization and decentralization suggest that urban governance and service delivery may have become more democratic, but present challenges with respect to priority setting, coordination, and corruption.
