Czech, Polish, or Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian Language and Literature

Minor
The Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures offers a minor program in Slavic Languages and Literatures with emphases in Czech, Polish, or Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian (BCS) Language and Literature.

Students who wish to major in these languages should consider the applicable program track available through the Slavic Languages and Literatures Department major program (http://guide.berkeley.edu/undergraduate/degree-programs/slavic-languages-literatures).

Declaring the Minor
Students considering a minor track involving language requirements must see the undergraduate student services adviser early on to have to have their minor study list plan reviewed and approved; referral for language proficiency screening, placement, and potential language course credit for heritage or native speakers is required. Final approval for a minor rests with the major adviser. The paperwork for the minor, called an L&S Confirmation of Minor form, is completed with the undergraduate student services adviser the semester in which the student will earn his/her degree, and no later than the last two weeks of classes in the student’s final semester.
