Hebrew

Minor

The Hebrew minor introduces students to the language, peoples, cultures, and histories of the modern Hebrew-speaking world. The minor develops the student's command of reading, writing, speaking, and comprehension in the modern Hebrew language and may complement the student's intended major study.

Students wishing to major in the study of Hebrew should see the major requirements in Near Eastern Languages and Literatures (http://guide.berkeley.edu/undergraduate/degree-programs/near-eastern-languages-literatures).

The Hebrew minor offers two options. Option A is open to students with little or no background in the language. Option B is for students who have completed the equivalent of two years of university-level coursework in the language. For specific information regarding the requirements for each option, please see the Minor Requirements tab on this page.

Declaring the Minor

Students may petition to add the Hebrew minor as soon as they begin their study of Hebrew. Please submit the Petition to Complete the Minor (https://ls.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/advcompletionofminor.pdf) form to the undergraduate student adviser.

The minor requires five upper-division courses in Hebrew literature and culture. Students may overlap one course from their major in order to complete the Hebrew minor requirements.

General Guidelines

1. All courses taken to fulfill major requirements must be taken for a letter grade and be at least 3 units
2. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 must be maintained in both upper and lower division courses used to fulfill the major requirements.
3. With the prior consent of the major adviser, students may take courses across various disciplines to fulfill minor requirements.

Minor Requirements

Open to students with no background in the language.
