Persian

Minor
The Persian minor introduces students to the people, language, cultures, history of the Persian-speaking world. The minor develops a student’s command of reading, writing, speaking, and comprehension in the Persian language and may complement the student’s intended major study.

Students wishing to major in the study of Persian should see the major requirements in Near Eastern Languages and Literatures (http://guide.berkeley.edu/undergraduate/degree-programs/near-eastern-languages-literatures).

Students minoring in Persian can choose one of two options. Option A is open to students with little or no background in the language. Option B is for students who have completed the equivalent of two years of university-level coursework in the language. For specific information regarding the requirements for each option, please see the Minor Requirements tab on this page.

Declaring the Minor
Students may petition to add the Persian minor as soon as they begin their study of Persian. Please submit the Petition to Complete the Minor (https://ls.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/advcompletionoflnsminor.pdf) form to the undergraduate student adviser.

The minor program requires five upper-division courses in Persian literature and culture. Students may overlap one course from their major in order to complete the Persian minor requirements.

General Guidelines
1. All courses taken to fulfill major requirements must be taken for a letter grade and be at least 3 units.
2. Students pursuing a double major may overlap two courses to meet both major requirements. Students can also overlap one course to fulfill major and minor requirements.
3. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 must be maintained in both upper and lower division courses used to fulfill the major requirements. For information regarding residency requirements and unit requirements, please see the College Requirements tab.
4. With prior consent of the major adviser, students may take courses across various disciplines to fulfill major requirements.

Minor Requirements
Open to students with no background in the language.
