Turkish

Minor
The Turkish minor introduces students to the language, peoples, cultures, and histories of the Turkish-speaking world. The minor develops a student's command of reading, writing, speaking, and comprehension in the Turkish language and may complement the student's intended major study.

Students minoring in Turkish must satisfy the lower division prerequisite requirements. Students may also take a language proficiency exam to waive the elementary and intermediate language courses. Please meet with the undergraduate major adviser to discuss course options and for study abroad plans.

Declaring the Minor
Students may declare the Turkish minor as soon as they begin their course study. Please find the minor declaration form in the Near Eastern Studies Department. Students must declare the minor no later than the semester before their Expected Graduation Term (EGT). Please see the L&S minor guidelines (https://ls.berkeley.edu/advising/planning/schedule-planning/minors) page for more information.

Turkish (p. 1) (Minor)

The Turkish minor program requires five upper-division courses in Turkish literature and culture or history.

General Guidelines
1. All minors must be declared no later than one semester before a student's Expected Graduation Term (EGT). If the semester before EGT is fall or spring, the deadline is the last day of RRR week. If the semester before EGT is summer, the deadline is the final Friday of Summer Sessions. To declare a minor, contact the department advisor for information on requirements, and the declaration process.
2. All courses taken to satisfy the minor requirement must be taken for a letter grade and be at least 3 units.

3. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 must be maintained in order to declare and complete the minor.
4. No more than one upper division course may be used to simultaneously satisfy requirements for a student’s major and minor program.
5. With the prior consent of the faculty major adviser, students may take courses across various disciplines to satisfy the Turkish culture and history requirement.
