VIS STD 181 Introduction to Photography 4 Units

Terms offered: Spring 2009, Fall 2008, Summer 2008 8 Week Session
This course will use the visual vocabulary of the digital camera as a way to record, respond and create. Students will gain technical mastery over the camera, image workflow, image editing, printing, and other forms of presentation. Exposure to the history and to the most current trends of the medium will broaden students' understanding of how photographs speak. Topics of discussion will include lighting, timing, creating a sense of place, and building a narrative structure.

VIS STD C185A Visual Autobiography 4 Units

Terms offered: Fall 2008, Fall 2007, Fall 2003, Spring 2002

Since visual and literary studies have historically been viewed as separate disciplines, we will use theories from both to study those forms of self-representation that defy disciplinary boundaries, or what we call "visual autobiography." The course aims to help students become conversant with the elements of alphabetic literacy (reading and writing) and visual literacy (observing and making) in order to develop a third distinctive textual/visual literacy.

Hours & Format

Fall and/or spring: 15 weeks - 6 hours of lecture per week

Additional Details

Subject/Course Level: Visual Studies/Undergraduate

Grading/Final exam status: Letter grade. Final exam required.

VIS STD 187A Freehand Drawing & Design 1 - 4 Units

Terms offered: Summer 2019 8 Week Session, Summer 2018 8 Week Session, Spring 2018

This class is organized as to push the limits of our creativity and refine our conceptual understanding through exacting class-wide design critiques. It is further structured so that we realize the interdependence between design and drawing, and expand our talents into a wide array of design fields. All class assignments are built in order to open us up to our unlimited design and drawing ability and to learn to design quickly and without inhibitions. Each week we will draw from a variety of sources such as faces, live models, mechanical objects, paintings, photographs, electron microscope photography but also from photos of published designs and use these sources as seeds to create relatively small design projects.

VIS STD 187B Ephemeral Land Art & City Art 4 Units

Terms offered: Fall 1991

At the core of this class is the desire to go deep within ourselves and explore how we can artistically and critically materialize the intimate relationship between our body/mind, the arts, the Landscape and the City. Following a new theme given each week, each student will endeavor to find a place within the Land or City in which to construct an intervention (sculpture, painting, installation) that resonates with this particular place. Through weekly alternating projects centered around the Land and the City this class will focus on restructuring our experience (through listening and responding to the Land and City) across the fields of design, and the visual and performing arts.
