

Jewish Studies

Minor

The Jewish Studies minor is open to all UC Berkeley students and is designed to give students an overview of some of the major themes in Jewish Studies. Students may choose offerings from a large number of disciplines including arts and humanities, social sciences, and law. After completing an introductory survey course, participants in the minor may take classes, seminars, and language courses, engage in hands-on experiential learning at The Magnes Collection for Jewish Art and Life, and take relevant courses offered in over 20 departments and colleges across campus, including, but not limited to: American Studies; Comparative Literature; Development Practice; Dutch; Economics; Education; German; Geography; Hebrew; History; Jewish Studies; Legal Studies; Letters and Science; Middle Eastern Languages and Cultures; Music, Political Science; Rhetoric; Theater Dance, and Performance Studies; Slavic; Sociology; Spanish; and Yiddish. The program allows students to work closely with members of the faculty, to be mentored by graduate students, and to participate in the intellectual life of the broader Jewish Studies community on campus. (<http://jewishstudies.berkeley.edu/courses-degree-programs/academic-degree-programs/#minor>) Application instructions for the minor (https://jewishstudies.berkeley.edu/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/JS-Minor-infoapplication-packet_-Rev_2022.pdf).

Declaring the Minor

For information on declaring the minor, please contact the Center for Jewish Studies here (<https://jewishstudies.berkeley.edu/courses-degree-programs/#minor>).

Students who have a strong interest in an area of study outside their major often decide to complete a minor program. These programs have set requirements.

General Guidelines

1. All minors must be declared before the first day of classes in your Expected Graduation Term (EGT). For summer graduates, minors must be declared prior to the first day of Summer Session A.
2. All upper-division courses must be taken for a letter grade.
3. A minimum of three of the upper-division courses taken to fulfill the minor requirements must be completed at UC Berkeley.
4. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 is required in the upper-division courses to fulfill the minor requirements.
5. Courses used to fulfill the minor requirements may be applied toward the Seven-Course Breadth requirement, for Letters & Science students.
6. No more than one upper division course may be used to simultaneously fulfill requirements for a student's major and minor programs.
7. All minor requirements must be completed prior to the last day of finals during the semester in which the student plans to graduate. If students cannot finish all courses required for the minor by that time, they should see a College of Letters & Science adviser.

8. All minor requirements must be completed within the unit ceiling. (For further information regarding the unit ceiling, please see the College Requirements tab.)

Requirements

- Five relevant upper division courses (including JEWISH 100 core course), minimum 3 units each, are required to complete the undergraduate minor.
- No more than 2 of the 5 courses can be substantially focused on Israel.

The study of Modern Hebrew, Biblical Hebrew, or Yiddish is encouraged and is essential for some but not all of the courses. However, there is no language requirement for the Jewish Studies minor and only advanced language courses are applicable to the minor.

To Declare Jewish Studies Minor

Students must meet with the JS minor adviser to declare the minor. Bring your complete application to the meeting. This includes:

- A completed Jewish Studies Minor Application Form (https://jewishstudies.berkeley.edu/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/JS-Minor-infoapplication-packet_-Rev_2022.pdf).
- A current copy of your UCB transcript printed from your student portal with your name printed on the document. Please highlight all courses that apply to the minor, including courses in progress and transferable credits from other institutions (community colleges, study abroad). Also, indicate which course (if any) will overlap between the JS minor and your major.
- Copies of transcripts from colleges other than UC Berkeley if course work is to be counted towards the minor. Transcripts may be unofficial. We do not have access to transcripts in the Registrar's Office. Students must request copies themselves and submit them with their applications. Please highlight all courses to be applied to the minor.
- Minors are added as plans in Campus Solutions, and must be declared in advance of verification of completion; therefore, all undergraduate minors must be declared no later than one semester prior to a student's Estimated Graduation Term (EGT). The deadline is the last day of RRR week.

Once admitted, minors are required to contact the JS minor adviser at least once each semester to get approval for any changes to their program.

To Complete Jewish Studies Minor

Fill out the following two forms: "Completion of L&S Minor" and "Major-Minor Overlap Check form" and submit both forms to JS Minor adviser before the final semester prior to anticipated graduation term. Forms can be found here (https://lsadvising.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/minor_form_2023.pdf). The College of Letters & Science will be notified of minor completion approximately four weeks after the final minor course has been completed for inclusion in the student's diploma.

JEWISH 126 Introduction to Modern Jewish Thought 3 - 4 Units

Terms offered: Spring 2025

Jewish thought is a field of Jewish studies that analyzes the themes of Jewish tradition, culture, community, and education throughout the ages from a conceptual point of view. The field often deals with connections, parallels, influences, and tensions between Jewish ideas and those of the wider world through studies of Jewish philosophy, theology, and mysticism. Key topics that are considered in this field include the existence and nature of God, the rationale for religious observance, the purpose of the Jewish people, the demands of Jewish ethics, the bonds between Israel and the Diaspora, the authority of revelation, the relation between faith and reason, and the transmission of Jewish culture across the generations.

JEWISH 175E History of Modern Israel: From the Emergence of Zionism to Our Time 4 Units

Terms offered: Fall 2024

The class explores the history of the Zionist movement and the State of Israel in all its complexity and contradictions. What is Zionism? What are its roots? Is it a liberation movement? A religious cause? A colonial ideology? A set of state policies? And what is the relationship between Zionism and the modern State of Israel? How do Zionism and Israel look different when considered from the standpoint of Jewish, Palestinian, European, or Middle Eastern history? Exploring Zionism and Israel from its roots in the nineteenth century to the present, this class offers in-depth knowledge and discussion on all of these topics and more.

Hours & Format

Fall and/or spring: 15 weeks - 3-3 hours of lecture and 0-1 hours of discussion per week

JEWISH 179 Special Topics in Holocaust Perspectives: Catastrophe, Memory & Narrative 4 Units

Terms offered: Fall 2024, Spring 2024

This course will examine comparative responses to and representations of violent conflict. We will pay attention to how catastrophic events are productive of new forms of expression--oral, written, and visual--as well as destructive of familiar ones. We will examine the ways in which experience and its representation interact during and in the aftermath of extreme violence. Our empirical cases will be drawn from our research on responses to WWII atrocities, and on the post-Cold War civil wars in Africa.
